Inventory	On 9/10/14, Attorney Alexander filed a petition for final distribution on behalf of his absconded client pursuant to Probate Code §10953(c). The petition indicated that the Administrator borrowed a sum of money to satisfy obligations and expenses of the estate, secured by the real property, and intended to make a distribution to his sister, make necessary repairs, and assume the loan after closing. The attorney was unaware whether any distribution of loan proceeds was made, whether any payment to the sister was made, or whether any repairs were made on the residence. The attorney requested surcharge of the Administrator to the extent of any breach of fiduciary duty, etc., and also requested statutory and extraordinary attorney's compensation.

FTB Notice	Status Report Re Estate Assets filed 4/14/15 by Public Administrator states Deputy PA Noe Jimenez spoke with Mr. Alexander, who believed that the only asset, the residence, was lost to foreclosure. He later found out that Mr. McClay may have benefitted from a loan he secured against the residence – a line of credit for $120,000.00 on the house in 2007. It appears he pulled all the credit line money out, and the residence was sold at a trustee sale in 2010 for $155,000.00. Mr. Jimenez believes he has found an accurate address for Mr. McClay in Sacramento, CA. The PA and counsel agree that Mr. McClay should be surcharged the full amount of the property listed on the I&A, $252,100 of which should be paid by the bond company, less any amounts that the company can recover or show were paid to benefit the estate.	File 2 - McClay

Status Report Regarding Final Account filed 11/14/14 states: At the hearing on 03/24/14, the judge ordered Roger Rowell to be personally present at the next hearing on 07/18/14. He did not appear, and the judge simply continued the matter to 11/18/14. In addition, the minute order was mailed to Mr. Rowell was returned as "no address found". The Public Administrator has been unable to make contact with Mr. Rowell to discuss tax issues and buying the property. This estate consists entirely of 1/7 interest in a 40% interest of real property. This is certainly nothing that could be sold. Therefore, the Public Administrator and County Counsel do not know how to proceed. Reportedly the other 6/7 of the 40% interest was put into a trust, but the Public Administrator does not have that trust or have any other knowledge of it. Unless the Court has any other suggestions, there seems to be nothing to do with this estate except to wait for Mr. Rowell to contact the Public Administrator or wait for the property to be lost to tax sale. In those cases, it is requested that status of this matter not be set for another 6 months. If any progress is made, the Public Administrator will certainly bring it to the Court's attention.

Status Report Regarding Final Account filed 06/03/15 states: At the hearing on 11/18/14, the Court requested that the Public Administrator continue to attempt to locate Roger Rowell, but his whereabouts remain unknown. This estate consists entirely of 1/7 interest in a 40% interest of real property. This is certainly nothing that could be sold. Therefore, the Public Administrator and County Counsel do not know how to proceed. Reportedly the other 6/7 of the 40% interest was put into a trust, but the Public Administrator does not have that trust or have any other knowledge of it. The Public Administrator asserts that she can do nothing more to help close this estate and requests that she be discharged.

Aff.Sub.Wit.	Former Status Report (not verified) filed 10-27-14 by Attorney Franco states at the last status hearing, the Court was informed that there was a delay in closing the estate due to an approximate seven-month wait time with the State of California Unclaimed Property Division for certain Merrill Lynch accounts that had been turned over to the state. At this time, the executor is still waiting on those funds. The Unclaimed Property Division is unable to provide an expected time other than what was previously reported. The estate is otherwise in a position to close and resolution has been reached with beneficiaries regarding assets and the large amount of reimbursement sought by the executor. The funds mentioned herein are needed for the resolution, though, which prevents a partial distribution. Petitioner would appreciate a further continuance of 60 days.

		File 4 – Blankenship

Former Status Conference Statement filed 01/26/2015 states there still exists a delay in closing the estate due to a delay in receiving money from the State of California Unclaimed Property Division for certain Merrill Lynch accounts of the decedent that had been turned over to the State. At prior hearings on this matter, the Court was informed that the Unclaimed Property Division informed the Executor that there was an approximate 7 month waiting time from application for unclaimed property to receipt of funds. The claim was made in July of 2014, and was resubmitted in November due to certain errors in the original claim. As of the time of the filing of this status report, the Executor is still waiting for those funds from the State of California. The Executor received the notices attached as Exhibit A from the Unclaimed Property Division. That the State is baked up due to budget cuts and shortage of staff. The estate is otherwise in a position to close, however, the funds from the Unclaimed Property Division represent the only liquid cash assets of the estate. A resolution has been reached with beneficiaries regarding the Estate assets and the large amount of reimbursements sought by the Executor. The funds from the Unclaimed Property Divisions unfortunately are needed for the resolution, preventing a partial Petition for Final Distribution, Petitioner would appreciate a further continuance of 60-90 days.

Examiner's Note: There is at least one Request for Special Notice filed in this matter. It does not appear that Notice of Hearing or copies of the various status reports have been served on interested parties. The Court may require service of this status report and notice of any future hearing.

Ms. Amador prepared and filed the petition for appointment of Ms. Gallo as administrator of the estate of Pauline Sidam, who had been Ms. Gallo's mother-in-law. Ms. Gallo was appointed 9-11-13 and Letters issued. Ms. Gallo was given full IAEA powers. The Inventory and Appraisal filed 10-4-13 consisted of a single asset, a single family residence in Fresno. Ms. Gallo exercised her IAEA authority and sold the house in April 2014. Prior to the sale, Ms. Gallo had informed Ms. Amador that she and her disabled son had decided to move to Minnesota to reside with her sister. She provided an address and stated that she could be reached at her current cell phone number. Ms. Amador had provided Ms. Gallo with necessary documents and information to open an estate account to receive proceeds from the sale of the residence and instructions on how to handle the escrow in March 2014. Ms. Amador wrote to Ms. Gallo in April and May requesting information on the estate, and attempted to call, but the cell phone number had been disconnected. Ms. Amador wrote again in December following the status conference where she had been ordered to file the final report no later than 1-5-15, but no reply has been received. To the best of Ms. Amador's knowledge, the address for Ms. Gallo in Minnesota is a valid address. None of the letters have been returned undeliverable. Even if she no longer resides there, it is expected that her sister would forward her mail. The attorney respectfully requests to be relieved as counsel of record for Ms. Gallo.
